“Santa Ana College inspires, transforms, and empowers a diverse community of learners”

I. Welcome and Introductions:

- A. Stephanie Clark commenced the meeting at 1:00pm and introduced Rob Johnstone and Priya Chaplot from National Center for Inquiry and Improvement

II. Updates, Debriefs, and Next Steps:

A. Progress/Completion- Discussion facilitated by NCII CAGP guests

- i. Rob Johnstone began a conversation on Progress and completion. Gave recommendations on various topics:
- ii. Recommended bulleted list of each team to identify intersections ahead of time. Suggest not more 2-3 target focus. Naming of the items. Naming what you are trying to solve.
- iii. Common challenges that can be tackled and some that can be done in a different climate, after covid
- iv. Be realistic about people’s energy. Do things with phases.
- v. GP is not an initiative but a framework. Not a thing you are doing but what you are becoming
- vi. Encouraged progress over perfection

III. Follow-Up Items:

A. Learning and Engagement

- i. Stephanie Clark shared details and active plans for Learning and Engagement. Currently working on a curriculum audit. Also working with Career Ladders to assist in how to recruit faculty. Equity is central in the conversations being held, incorporating T3 frameworks and anti-racist curriculum design. Shared Coffee with Colleague sessions are held to have casual space for faculty and staff to enter into dialogue. Amberly Chamberlain spoke on her focus of Professional developments and trainings that have been gearing up with themes and dialogue. Dr. Jarek Janio shared Outcome Assessment work and how to improve outcomes in the classroom.

B. Success Teams

- i. Dr. Maria Dela Cruz shared the details on the creation of Success Teams, Role a Likes, and CAP Coordinators and the fuse of Equity Professional Development. She shared data on the goal of incoming students that the coaches are working on

- ii. Rob suggested that there be an intersection of information from students, to staff, assistants, administrators for there to be a connection of community building through Success Teams, Staff and Faculty. Seeing the intersection of their work through a student lens.
- iii. Priya- Intentions are good - we don't want people to think as these groups are separate from all the other work.
- iv. Rob shared Students Shaping Change: Engaging students as partners in the work
- v. https://rpggroup.org/Portals/0/Documents/Projects/CCC_Guided_Pathways/VoicesEngagement/Students-Shaping-Change-Final-ADA.pdf

C. Mapping

- i. Mapping Team is focused on advocating on a new position to assist with mapping to populate in our datatel system and publish maps. Currently reviewing mapping resources.
- ii. Rob shared that focus should be on student customized learning-based maps that lead to outcomes. Don't let mapping become too big of an issue. They are just starting points. Meeting them (students) where they are at the moment to help continue making progress.

D. Transitions

- i. Raquel Requena shared that the team is working on strategies to overcome institutional challenges as far as processes and looking into what kind of student experience they want students to have

E. Starfish

- i. John Steffens shared that his team is waiting on a proposal to see if web redesign plan is feasible. Also shared the tracking items with starfish flags types and referrals and how these will be great for data analysis.
- ii. Noted that buying technology will not solve the problem, its people socializing and using it and talking about the data it is providing that will bring solutions.
- iii. Priya commented that there is real power with data but can be a danger if your accountability to the data is not happening.

Next meeting date: December 9 2020- All upcoming meetings will be through Zoom until further notice/Any date-time changes will be notified in advance.
