

DE Addendum Rubric Rough Draft

This rubric provides SAC (Santa Ana College) Faculty with a framework for evaluating the course proposal's Distance Education components.

	Aligned	Not Aligned
B. Methods of instruction	The proposal describes what (specific) methods of instruction will be used in the distance learning modality to achieve course outcomes. Examples are provided in the proposal to show how the methods will be modified/ and/or replaced in the asynchronous and or synchronous course. Separate responses have been provided for each modality.	The proposal does not describe what methods of instructions will be used in the distance learning modality to achieve course outcomes. Examples have not been provided to show how the methods will be modified/ and or replaced in the asynchronous and or synchronous course. Separate responses have not been provided for each modality.
C.1. Maintain regular effective and substantive contact with students.	The proposal describes how the instructor will maintain regular effective contact with students and includes what will make the interaction effective.	The proposal does not describe how the instructor will maintain regular effective contact with students and/or does not include what will make the interaction effective.
C.2. Promote regular effective contact among students (student-to-student)	The proposal describes how the instructor will promote and ensure regular effective substantive contact among students.	The proposal does not describe how the instructor will promote and ensure regular effective substantive contact among students.
D. Student Learning Evaluation	The proposal describes and provides examples of how student learning will be evaluated.	The proposal does not describe and/or provide examples of how student learning will be evaluated.
E.1. College Resources: Facilities	Facilities required for the course are included.	Facilities that will be required for the course are not included.
E.2. College Resources: Technology	Technology required for the course is included.	Technology that will be required for the course is not included.
E.3. College Resources: Student Support Services	Student Support Services (in addition to existing online services) required for the course are included.	Student Support Services (in addition to existing online services) that will be required for the course are not included.