V. CURRICULUM and INSTRUCTION COUNCIL (CIC) HANDBOOK – B. Sos

B. Sos presented a work-in-progress copy of the CIC handbook. He reviewed the document and explained what the yellow highlights meant as well as text projected in red and strikethroughs. He stressed the importance of reviewing the Mission statement to ensure better clarity and specificity.

B. Sos mentioned that portions of the handbook will be reviewed at each meeting to ensure that the document is thoroughly reviewed and updated. His goal is to have a completed copy by mid-Spring.

B. Sos also presented SCC's CIC Handbook as a reference.

Discussion ensued about including a process that clearly defines steps when content over-lap between SAC departments/divisions and shared curriculum with SCC is afoot, having the ability of adding multiple disciplines in courses, how voting members are chosen, updating Board Policies (BPs) and Administrative Regulations (ARs), and the role of the Curriculum Secretaries' roles and responsibilities.

VI.a. ACCREDITATION REPORT

F. Ortiz stated that the Accreditation Team is in the final home stretch of getting the first draft completed by the end of December; thus, revision can be made.

VI.b. ARTICULATION REPORT

No report provided.

VI.c. currlQūnet META Update

R. Vazquez reported that the Dean of Academic Affairs, the Curriculum Office staff and the Desktop Publisher continue to work with Governet to resolve issues pertaining to the catalog module. The group will be meeting with Governet the week after Thanksgiving.

VI.d. Guided Pathways (GP)

No report provided.

VI. OTHER

B. Sos expressed the need to add minor revisions to the Board Policy (BP) and Administrative Regulation (AR) 4235, Credit for Prior Learning. The revisions included the separation of Credit for Prior Learning, College Level Examination Program (CLEP), Advanced Placement (AP) and International Baccalaureate (IB) examination into categories.

Unfortunately, B. Sos was unable to attend the last Academic Senate Meeting; thus, requested that the item be tabled. Academic Senate Senators had questions related with approvals in departments, how to settle disagreements and fees. He articulated that he did not feel the BP and AR should address such detail. Details could be addressed in the college catalog after consultation with various entities throughout the campus. Committee members agreed.

B. Sos will present BP and AR 4235 as written to the Academic Senate on Tuesday, November 24th.

Meeting adjourned at 3:58 p.m.
