I. Public Comment

Members and Department Chairs provided updates on where they are and what they are doing with SLO assessments.

Philosophy: Currently, as a department they have not had the opportunity to meet. In their upcoming meeting they will discuss SLOs and PLOs.

Dance: They will be having a department meeting soon and will discuss SLOs and PLOs.

Computer Science: A meeting with the chair will be occurring this week.

Criminal Justice (Academies): Classes have stopped completely. In regards to SLOs, they have standardized tests that help create criteria.

Occupational Therapy: They have been in contact with OTA programs throughout the United States. This has helped create unity and support. However, there are challenges in terms of students being able to complete requirements. Thus, some students might be receiving incompletes, if they cannot get hours by the end of May.

Modern Languages: The department will be continuing to move forward with assessments. It will be interesting to see results from a regular semester v. a crisis semester. They have meetings every Sunday to check in with Faculty.
