Occupational therapy is a discipline, which focuses on function as well as quality of life. Occupational therapy assistants provide service to individuals with physical, mental or environmental disabilities, across life phases, who need to remediate skills of everyday tasks of work, self care and leisure. The major requires general education courses including: biological, social, and behavioral science, in addition to, occupational therapy courses. The program utilizes classroom instruction and fieldwork experiences to prepare the student to meet certification and employment standards.

When applying for the certification examination with the National Board of Certification (NBCOT)

applicants will be asked to answer questions related to topic of felonies.

Application for state licensure with the Board of Occupational Therapy (BOT) requires fingerprinting. For information about limitations based on felonies applicants are advised to call

NBCOT and BOT (address and phone numbers above) any time prior to the application process. Further, there is a high probability that students will be required to be fingerprinted (at the student's cost) and/or have a drug test and criminal background check at a fieldwork site. Problems with fingerprinting and background could result in a delay or failure of program completion.
