♦DAY 1 ~ ARRIVE NEW ORLEANS♦

Start with optional transfers from home or our departure points this morning to LAX for a nonstop flight to New Orleans, Louisiana. On board throughout this tour is geographer, Dennis Napier, former professor at Long Beach City College. His extensive knowledge and diverse background will make your journey an enlightening one. Upon our arrival in New Orleans a deluxe motorcoach will be waiting to transport us for the next seven days. New Orleans is a soulful city that abounds with rich history, mouth-watering Cajun and Creole cuisine and is known as the “Jazz Capital of the World”. We’ll check into a boutique hotel located in the heart of the historic French Quarter for a two- night stay. This truly distinctive establishment which just underwent a multi-million dollar renovation has a sense of style and grace only to be found in America’s most interesting city. Join your fellow travelers for an included welcome dinner of outstanding traditional Creole cuisine at the famed Court of Two Sisters, a New Orleans landmark. (Dinner)

♦DAY 2 ~ NEW ORLEANS♦

This morning enjoy an included breakfast at the hotel before we begin our sightseeing in the “Big Easy”. A local guide will join us as we embark on a leisurely walking tour of the French Quarter including Bourbon Street, Jackson Square, and the majestic St. Louis Cathedral. We’ll continue on to the bustling and exotic French Marketplace to explore Pirates Alley. As we travel along stately St. Charles Avenue in the lovely Garden District you’ll gaze upon the decadent and exclusive homes in what is one of the best-preserved collections of southern mansions in the United States. Then, a visit to one of New Orleans’ unique above-ground cemeteries, commonly referred to as “Cities of the Dead” for their elaborate architectural tombs. The afternoon is set aside for you to explore New Orleans at your leisure. Our hotel is in a prime location and within walking distance of the city’s finest antique shops on Royal Street, Bourbon Street, jazz clubs, world renowned restaurants, museums and voodoo shops. Grab a po’ boy or some fresh beignets and a café au lait at Café du Monde. Perhaps visit the National World War II Museum or test lady luck at one of the local casinos. Take a stroll down Bourbon Street or a leisurely walk along the Mississippi River... laissez les bon temps rouler! (Breakfast

New Orleans

♦DAY 3 ~ BAYOU & CAJUN COUNTRY♦

This morning, after an included breakfast we’ll depart New Orleans and head into Louisiana’s Bayou Country where we’ll go deep into the mysterious bayous and swamps haunted by alligators and lined with moss draped trees

FURTHER INFORMATION / TERMS

See Good Times Travel catalog or www.goodtimestravel.com

on a guided "authentic" swamp boat tour. Your knowledgeable guide will point out the magnificent birds and other wildlife treasures of this remote area. An included lunch at The Cabin, a unique restaurant that has to be seen to be believed. Traditional Cajun fare awaits – fried stuffed crabs, fried catfish fingers, baked chicken, green beans, dirty rice, cornbread, buttermilk pie, and bread pudding. This afternoon we visit the Houmas House Plantation, known as the Crown Jewel of Louisiana's River Road. Experience the southern splendor of this grand antebellum estate on a docent-guided tour of the 16 rooms filled with period antiques and Louisiana artwork. Enjoy the breeze off the Mississippi River and navigate through the shadows of ancient oaks as you explore the 38 acres of lush gardens featuring azaleas that should be in bloom this time of year. Later this afternoon we arrive in Louisiana's capital city of Baton Rouge for an overnight stay. We'll see the State Capitol Building and learn about the state's most influential political figure, Governor Huey Long. An included dinner this evening at a local favorite. (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

◆ DAY 4 ~ CAJUN COUNTRY, PLANTATIONS ◆

Following an included breakfast this morning we begin an exploration of Louisiana's Plantation Country as we travel along the River Road. Although other states have their own River Roads, perhaps none is more evocative or famous than this one. Louisiana's fabled Great Mississippi River Road stretches approximately 70 miles from Baton Rouge to New Orleans and is home to the most famous and monumental plantation mansions, most built by wealthy sugar planters in the Greek Revival style. This time of year generally brings an explosion of spring blooms and fragrances. This morning at the Oak Alley Plantation we'll marvel at the canopy of 300-year-old live oak trees. Known as the "Grande Dame of the Great River Road", you'll learn about the lives of the plantation owners on a guided tour conducted by a docent dressed in period costume. This afternoon we'll arrive at the Nottoway Plantation, the South's largest remaining antebellum mansion. This "American castle" recently underwent a dramatic multi-million dollar renovation to restore her to her days of glory. We'll enjoy a docent-guided tour and an included lunch here. This afternoon we journey to lovely Natchez, Mississippi, the first settlement on America's great river. Founded by the French in 1716, Natchez was home to a flowering of antebellum culture and to this day it personifies the grace and elegance of the South with its preserved antebellum mansions. We'll enjoy a three-night stay at a hotel listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The hotel is conveniently located in downtown Natchez in the heart of the Historic District on Antique Row and within easy walking distance of restaurants and the Mississippi River. Enjoy dinner at leisure this evening. (Breakfast, Lunch)

◆ DAY 5 ~ VICKSBURG ◆

Following an included breakfast this morning we follow the Natchez Trace Parkway through exceptional scenery and 10,000 years of North American history to Vicksburg. General Andrew Jackson, Jefferson Davis, James Audubon, Meriwether Lewis (who died on the Trace in 1809), and Ulysses S. Grant are among the famous Americans to have traveled the route you will travel today. Upon our arrival in Vicksburg a licensed National Park guide will be aboard as we tour the Civil War battlefield at Vicksburg National Military Park. The Military Park commemorates the campaign that took place here 150 years ago and its significance as a critical turning point of the Civil War. Enjoy an included lunch in Vicksburg followed by a visit to the historic Old Court House and Museum. The Old Court House, built in 1858, stands today as Vicksburg's most historic structure. Within the museum you'll find Confederate flags, including one that was never surrendered, the tie worn by Jefferson Davis at his inauguration as Confederate President, fine portraits, china and silver, exquisite antique furniture, and an original Teddy Bear given to a local child by Theodore Roosevelt. We return to Natchez with the balance of the evening at your leisure. (Breakfast, Lunch)

◆ DAY 6 ~ NATCHEZ SPRING PILGRIMAGE ◆

Following an included breakfast this morning we take part in an annual Southern tradition, the Natchez Spring Pilgrimage – a celebration of spring at the time of year when the azaleas and other blooms are most likely. During the Pilgrimage, there are 30 antebellum mansions, most of them private residences that open their doors to visitors. Within the mansions costumed guides who are family friends and descendants of the original owners relay stories that are as real as the bricks and mortar in their hearths. Each house is unique with 18th and 19th-century furnishings, porcelain, silver, clothing, tools, documents and diaries. During the day you will tour three Antebellum homes and take a guided carriage tour through historic Natchez. Enjoy a memorable farewell dinner this evening in a lovely privately-owned antebellum plantation home. (Breakfast, Dinner)

◆ DAY 7 ~ FINAL FAREWELL ◆

Following an included breakfast this morning and time to explore Natchez at your leisure, we return to New Orleans for our evening nonstop return flight to Los Angeles. Memorable experiences of spectacular southern hospitality, spring blooms and spectacular sights not soon forgotten. (Breakfast)
