~DAY BY DAY ITINERARY~

The world's first national park inspires awe any time of the year, but as you'll discover on this very special adventure, visiting Yellowstone during the winter – when bison, elk and wolves wander across snow-covered valleys, and Yellowstone's amazing geologic features are even more spectacular – truly allows you to see the real Yellowstone. Exploring by snowcoach, you'll feel like you pretty much have this incredible place to yourself as you see geysers, waterfalls and steaming hot springs surrounded by frozen landscapes. Combined with Jackson and Grand Teton National Park as well as sightseeing in Park City and Salt Lake City, this is a whole other type of tour – and perhaps other-worldly experience.

◆DAY 1 ~ TRAVEL TO SALT LAKE CITY◆

Your winter adventure gets under way as we make our way to Salt Lake City today. Optional transfers from home or our departure points this morning will have us at the airport for our short flight arriving in Salt Lake City in the afternoon. Salt Lake City, Utah's political and cultural center is silhouetted by the lovely Wasatch Mountains. In 1847 Brigham Young chose Salt Lake Valley as the area to become the major settlement of the Mormon Pioneers. Laid out more than 150 years ago, the "City of the Saints" still manages to keep its rustic charm. Today, you'll see where most of the ceremonies for the 2002 Winter Olympics were held. After checking into our hotel and time to freshen up, we'll get acquainted with our fellow passengers at a welcome dinner. (Dinner)

◆DAY 2 ~ SALT LAKE TO YELLOWSTONE◆

Following an included breakfast, a once in a lifetime opportunity awaits you! Special seating has been arranged for our group at the Mormon Tabernacle in Temple Square, where you will have a chance to hear the world-famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir's weekly broadcast performance (choir schedule permitting). Following the performance, we leave the Wasatch Mountains behind us and drive north past the Great Salt Lake, Hill Air Force Base, and Utah's first settlement, Ogden. This afternoon, we will enter Idaho and travel through the potato-producing fields of the Gem State. As we continue north, we will pass the town of Rexburg. In 1976, the Teton Dam burst, sending a wall of water through the main street, destroying the town. We continue on to the Island Park Region along the Madison and Henry Rivers, an area that is famous throughout the world for its outstanding trout fishing. After going over Targhee Pass we will enter Montana and the town of West Yellowstone, at the western gate of Yellowstone National Park. Overnight in West Yellowstone. (Breakfast, Dinner)

◆DAY 3 ~ YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK◆

After an included breakfast this morning, we have an entire day to explore our nation's oldest and most spectacular National Park via private chartered snowcoaches! Yellowstone National Park is a mysterious land of steaming geysers and bubbling mudpots – a land so amazing that the first explorers to bring back tales of Yellowstone were called liars. Visit some of Yellowstone's most famous highlights, including Firehole Falls and the geyser known world-wide as Old Faithful – a fountain of steam that faithfully rises more than 60 feet in the air. After a full day of scenic beauty, we continue on south through Yellowstone and on into Grand Teton National Park, where you will see America's youngest and most rugged mountains, the Teton Range. Enjoy the spectacular scenery as you journey to Jackson where we check in for a two night stay. Dinner is included this evening in the old west town of Jackson. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Yellowstone National Park

◆ DAY 4 - JACKSON, ELK REFUGE ◆

Enjoy a winter day in this city at the base of the rugged Teton Mountains. After our included breakfast this morning, we head just a couple miles north of Jackson to the National Elk Refuge, winter home for thousands of majestic elk. This morning we'll get a close-up view on our sleigh ride through the Elk Refuge. We will then visit the National Museum of Wildlife Art. This museum features some of the world's most beautiful wildlife paintings, sculptures and photographs. This afternoon you are free to explore the many shops and restaurants of this fascinating Wild West town. Jackson offers western charm at its finest. Enjoy a stroll among its boardwalk atmosphere. Optional Tour – For those who wish to embark on a snowmobile adventure instead of the above, this option is available for an additional charge ($279 per person). Head off to Granite Hot Springs in the mountains east of Jackson. After snowmobiling you can relax in the natural hot spring waters surrounded by snow-covered mountains followed by a delicious barbecue lunch. (Breakfast)

◆ DAY 5 - PARK CITY, SALT LAKE CITY ◆

Following an included breakfast this morning, we depart Jackson and travel through scenic western Wyoming into Idaho, all the while surrounded by silver streams, soaring peaks, and lush meadows. Drive through the rugged Snake River Canyon, stopping in pastoral Starr Valley. This afternoon we arrive at the Utah Olympic Park near Park City for touring of this amazing facility that hosted events during the 2002 Winter

Grand Teton National Park

Olympic Games and continues to host World Cup events. We will see the Nordic Jumps along with the Bobsled and Luge Track – the fastest on Earth! Tonight join the group for a farewell dinner at a local favorite. (Breakfast, Dinner)

◆ DAY 6 - FINAL FAREWELL ◆

After an included breakfast this morning, a short transfer to the Salt Lake International Airport will have us home in the evening. Those with transfers will be returned to their respective destinations. We'll always remember the fantastic scenery, gracious hospitality and magnificent wildlife on this western winter wonderland. (Breakfast)

◆ IMPORTANT NOTES ◆

Note: The maximum elevation on this itinerary is up to 8,000 feet. This tour may be different from other Good Times Travel vacations, as the walking can be strenuous due to the high elevations. Travelers should be in good health and must be able to walk reasonable distances. Some of the sightseeing can only be accomplished on foot. It is important that you have comfortable waterproof walking shoes as well as winter clothing for this tour.
