SANTA ANA COLLEGE NEALLEY LIBRARY MLA Style

The MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers 7th ed. is the authoritative source for MLA documentation style. Used by writers in the arts, humanities, business, and political science, it provides guidelines for documenting sources and the physical formatting of papers. Ask for the current edition at the Reference Desk (LB 2369 G53 2009 Reference Desk).

Use an online citation builder to most easily cite any document or source. Use the Create Citations link at the bottom of the library homepage or go directly to: www.noodletools.com/login.php.

Formatting the Works Cited Page

- Start the list on a new page with the page number in the upper right-hand corner, continuing the page numbers of the text.
- Center the title (Works Cited) 1" from the top of the page
- Double-space the entire list, including between the title and first entry. Note that examples in this handout are not double spaced.
- If your reference continues to a second line, double-space and use a hanging indent for the second and all subsequent lines.
- Alphabetize list by the author's last name.
- If there is more than one work by the same author, list them alphabetically by title.

Parenthetical Citations within the Paper

In the text of your paper, acknowledge the sources used with a parenthetical citation that refers to the alphabetical Works Cited list at the end of the paper. The citation refers the reader to the full citation in the list as well as to the page number. For example, if you are citing a fact found on page 59 of Too fat or too Thin? by Cynthia Kalodner, the citation would be:

(Kalodner 59).

If your list contains two books by Kalodner the citation would be:

(Kalodner Too 59).
