Resolution: SP17-03

Proposed Date: May 23, 2017

Approved Date:

Subject: Support for the Formation of the Department of Adults with Disabilities for Santiago Canyon College Continuing Education

Moved:

Second:

Whereas, in Fall 2016 Santiago Canyon College Continuing Education Division hired a new full-time Adults with Disabilities faculty member through support from the Adult Education Block Grant to create a new department and address the needs of this population of students within Continuing Education;

Whereas, funding requirements, needs of the community, and an increased emphasis on addressing student needs through innovative instruction, curriculum development, and course offerings demonstrate the need for the creation of this department;

Whereas, the size of the SCC Continuing Education program, diversity of students, and variety of course offerings make it essential to have an Adults with Disabilities Department;

Whereas, the faculty for SCC Continuing Education and its administrators agree with the formation of this new department;

Resolved, that SAC SCE faculty and The Academic Senate of Santa Ana College support Santiago Canyon College Academic Senate and SCC CE faculty in the creation of the Department of Adults with Disabilities effective Fall 2017.
