

The Academic Senate encourages faculty to include the following recommended statement in their course syllabi to help connect students with essential support services available through the Fainbarg Chase Thrive Center.

Faculty are encouraged to adapt or tailor the wording of this statement to best support their student population and instructional context.

Thrive Center – Basic Needs Resources

The Fainbarg Chase Thrive Center (sac.edu/thrivecenter) is a comprehensive resource hub helping students navigate food, housing, and financial stability. They connect students to essential support, including food pantry, CalFresh benefits, housing navigation, hygiene items, menstrual products, diapers, professional clothing, and resource navigation. All enrolled students are welcome to use their services.

Need support? Here's how to connect with the Thrive Center:
