Resolution: F92.13
Administration Evaluation

Passed: October 6, 1992

Date: October 6, 1992
Subject: Administration Evaluation
Mover: Janis Perry
Seconder: Bonnie Jaros

Whereas, the faculty recognize the value in an evaluation process which is constructive and supportive of overall professional development;

Whereas, the faculty work as a team with directors up through vice chancellors and the chancellor on academic and professional matters;

Whereas, the faculty are specifically interested in the evaluation process for academic administrators;

Whereas, the faculty reconfirms their original resolution about their AB 1725 mandated "appropriate role" in administrative evaluation;

Whereas, the faculty have agreed to work collegially with management on the design of the administrative evaluation model.

Be it resolved as follows: That the Academic Senate for Rancho Santiago College requests that the Rancho Santiago College Administrative Evaluation Model include the evaluation of Directors, Assistant Deans, Deans, Executive Deans, Vice Chancellors, and Chancellor where appropriate, and

Be it further resolved as follows: That there be separate models designed for academic administrators and operational administrators.
