Resolution: F93.01
Diversity at the College

Passed: October 5, 1993

Date: September 21, 1993
Subject: Diversity at the College
Mover: Tom Osborne
Seconder: Bonnie Jaros

Whereas, Rancho Santiago College is composed of and serves a diverse population of learners, and;

Whereas, respect for diversity must be complemented by a strong sense of community at Rancho Santiago College if we are to provide an optimal learning environment for everyone concerned;

Be it resolved as follows: That the Academic Senate for Rancho Santiago College recommends that the college adopt as a definition of itself, the phrase: "A Diverse Learning Community;" and that this phrase serve as a tag or header or motto on college stationery, the El Don masthead, official college reports, and other places deemed appropriate by the college community (i.e., faculty, students, administration, classified and Supervisory Confidential.)
