Resolution: F03.01 Passed: November 4, 2003
Library Presence on the College Home Page

Date: October 23, 2003
Subject: Library Presence on the College Home Page
Mover: Joseph Geissler
Seconder: Lana Wong

Whereas, the goal of the librarians at the Santa Ana College Library is to provide students with quality resources for their classes;

Whereas, the Library is the main source of information and resources for students during the academic year;

Whereas, these resources, which are primarily delivered through the Library's web page, are critical sources of information for students writing papers, speeches, or preparing for exams;

Whereas, most Orange County community colleges, including Santiago Canyon College, and four-year colleges, including UCI, CSU Fullerton and Chapman University, provide a link to the library on their main college web page;

Whereas, those institutions have recognized how frequently the library's resources are utilized and the importance of the library to their students' academic success;

Whereas, the SAC Library's web page is difficult for students to find and is also not listed with the faculty and staff rollover.
