

Chapman Transfer Agreement Guarantee (C-TAG)

Contract for Santa Ana College Students

“Chapman C-TAG” offers a transfer agreement guarantee with Santa Ana College (SAC) students in the teacher education pathway who are seeking to transfer to Chapman University, beginning with the Spring 2025 semester. C-TAG specifically sets forth admission requirements for SAC students pursuing a Liberal Studies major with an Elementary Education minor at Chapman University. Students must meet all requirements listed below to be eligible for C-TAG.

Please read and initial each item below as acknowledgement of the eligibility requirements:

- _____ Meet with a Center for Teacher Education (CFTE) counselor to review requirements, develop an education plan, and submit/sign this C-TAG Contract.
- _____ Once the C-TAG Contract is signed by the student, a CFTE counselor will share contact information with Chapman University so that they can begin to work with the student on scheduling a one-on-one advising appointment with a Chapman University Admissions Advisor to discuss application process and financial aid.
- _____ Complete the pre-admission coursework outlined below. Any of these transfer preparation options can be in progress when applying, but need to be completed by the time the student starts their Chapman University courses.

General Education (GE) Requirements: Students who have completed any of the following will have met minimum eligibility for transfer and will have satisfied the majority of the GE requirements for Chapman University –

- California State University General Education Breadth (CSU-GE Breadth) certification OR
- Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) certification OR
- Completion of an Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT)
