

DSPS Workshops for November 2018

Learning Disability Assessment Question and Answer Sessions

Presenter: Mark Turner, Learning Disability Specialist, Associate Professor (714-564-6269)

Frequently asked questions:

- What types of learning issues can be assessed?
- How long will the testing take? How soon can I begin the testing process?
- I get very anxious when taking exams. Can I qualify for accommodations?
- After my testing, would I qualify for a math course substitution?

Attend a 30-minute session in the DSPS Office, VL-204:

- Monday, November 19, 2018 at 2:00pm - 2:30pm (DHH services available)
- Tuesday, November 27, 2018 at 3:00pm - 3:30pm

You may receive an appointment to begin your Learning Disability assessment after you attend a Q&A Session.

Understanding Your Academic Accommodations to Support Student Success

Presenter: Louise Janus, Learning Disability Specialist, Associate Professor (714-564-6299)

Frequently Asked Questions:

- I have an academic accommodation but not sure how to use it?
- I am a military veteran. Can I get support with VRC and DSPS?
- I have an academic accommodation, is it okay if I do not use it?
- I think I have a learning disability. What support can I get?

Attend a 30-minute session in the DSPS Office, VL-204:

- Tuesday, November 20, 2018 at 9:30am – 10:30am (SAC, VL-204) (DHH Services available)
- Monday, November 26, 2018 at 5:00 pm – 5:30pm (SAC, VL-204)
- Thursday, November 29, 2018 at 10:00am – 10:30am (CEC, B-113)
- Thursday, November 29, 2018 at 11:30am – 12:00pm (CEC, B-113)

Students who are actively enrolled or interested in receiving DSPS support are HIGHLY encouraged to attend this workshop!