

DSPS Workshops for November 2019

Learning Disability Assessment Question and Answer Sessions

Presenter: Mark Turner, Learning Disability Specialist, Associate Professor (714-564-6269)

Frequently asked questions:

- What types of learning issues can be assessed?
- How long will the testing take? How soon can I begin the testing process?
- I get very anxious when taking exams. Can I qualify for accommodations?
- After my testing, would I qualify for a math course substitution?

Attend a 30-minute session in the DSPS Office, VL-204:

- Wednesday, November 6, 2019 from 10:00am - 10:30am (DHH services available)
- Thursday, November 14, 2019 from 5:00pm - 5:30pm
- Wednesday, November 20, 2019 from 10:00am - 10:30am
- Thursday, November 27, 2019 from 10:00am - 10:30am

You may receive an appointment to begin your Learning Disability assessment after you attend a Q&A Session.

Understanding Your Academic Accommodations to Support Student Success

Presenter: Louise Janus, Learning Disability Specialist, Associate Professor (714-564-6299)

Frequently Asked Questions:

- I have an academic accommodation but not sure how to use it?
- I am a military veteran. Can I get support with VRC and DSPS?
- I have an academic accommodation, is it okay if I do not use it?
- I think I have a learning disability. What support can I get?

Attend a 30-minute session in the DSPS Office, VL-204:

- Monday, November 4, 2019 from 10:00am - 10:30am
- Tuesday, November 12, 2019 from 9:30am - 10:00am
- Monday, November 18, 2019 from 4:00pm - 4:30pm
- Tuesday, November 26, 2019 from 3:30pm - 4:00pm

Students who are actively enrolled or interested in receiving DSPS support are HIGHLY encouraged to attend this workshop!