Certification of Educational Expenses for Students with Disabilities

Disabled students may receive an allowance for the cost of special services and/or equipment required for attendance at Rancho Santiago Community College District. These services and/or equipment cannot be provided by other agencies. The student must pay the cost. These costs may be added to a student budget to increase need. The budget increase may not result in a higher Pell Grant award, and may increase loan eligibility.

TO QUALIFY:

- 1. A student must be classified as a disabled student by the Disabled Student Program at RSCCD. Students may be mentally impaired, hard of hearing or deaf, speech or language impaired, visually handicapped, seriously emotionally disturbed, or orthopedically impaired, otherwise health impaired or has specific learning disabilities that require special education and related services.
- 2. A student must provide documentation/receipts of costs for services and equipment.
