Financial Aid Disbursement Dates for Summer 2023

Federal Grant is the foundation of Financial Aid for undergraduates who demonstrate need. The Pell Grant offer is based on the Expected Family Contribution, and full-time enrollment status. The Pell Grant disbursement is prorated according to the active units if less than full-time. Summer Pell Grant awards are typically disbursed in one payment during the summer session. Students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress to be eligible.

Method of Fund Disbursement: Santa Ana College have partnered with BankMobile to deliver your financial aid refund. For more information about BankMobile, visit this link <http://bankmobiledisbursements.com/refundchoicesso/> . New financial aid recipients need to register with BankMobile to choose their preferred method of disbursement to ensure the timely receipt of their aid.

Summer 2023 Enrollment and Award:

If you have received the maximum 100% of your 2022-2023 Pell Grant eligibility, you must enroll in at least half-time (6 units) in Summer 2023 to be eligible for any Pell Grant for the summer 2023 semester using the eligible Expected Family Contribution (EFC) of your 2022-2023 FAFSA .

If you have received the maximum 100% of your 2022-2023 Pell Grant eligibility, and plan to enroll less than half-time (less than 6 units) in summer 2023, you must complete the 2023-2024 FAFSA, have an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) eligible for less than half-time enrollment, have your 2023-2024 file completed (no missing documents) and processed to be eligible for any Pell Grant for summer 2023. If this applies to you, contact our Financial Aid Office for more information through Live Chat at <https://www.sac.edu/StudentServices/FinancialAid/Pages/default.aspx>.

Federal regulations require that students must pay back part or all of their financial aid disbursements if students withdraw from all or part of their classes after receiving their disbursements. If you consider dropping your classes, contact our Financial Aid Analyst for more information through Live Chat at <https://www.sac.edu/StudentServices/FinancialAid/Pages/default.aspx>.
