

SECOND ANNUAL CLASSIFIED PROFESSIONALS RETREAT

RESHAPING CAREERS, INSPIRING FUTURES

We are excited to invite you to SAC's Second Annual Classified Professionals Retreat - an enriching and empowering experience designed just for you. The retreat consists of two dynamic 3.5-hour professional development sessions, designed to support and empower you in your career journey.

Build Connections

Network with peers, share experiences, and strengthen your professional community.

Explore Career Mobility

Understand how opportunities exist beyond traditional classifications.

Practical Insights

Discover strategies, mindsets, and tools that can help you grow in your own role.

Real Life Success Stories

Hear how colleagues successfully navigated career transitions from classified roles into faculty and administration.

Kalonji Saterfield
Assistant Professor
Communication Studies

Sarah Fisher
Assistant Vice Chancellor
Educational Services

Our keynote speakers, Kalonji Saterfield and Sarah Fisher, will share their inspiring journeys of growth and transformation. They'll talk about how they reshaped their careers, made successful transitions into new roles in faculty and administration, and found new opportunities along the way. Their stories will encourage you to reflect on your own path and inspire you to imagine new possibilities for your career.
