

Intersectionality, Race, and Social Justice Advisory Group

Academic Senate Report

November 14, 2023

Report:

- The IRSJ webpage is now available on the Academic Senate website.
- During our last meeting on November 3rd, the group primarily discussed finalizing points for our recommendation to academic senate exec regarding Academic Senate meeting agenda item submission and tracking processes. Other topics discussed included equitable approaches to a campus climate survey and exploring through College Counsel the development of a more transparent campus event calendaring system.
- During our next meeting, the group will primarily discuss our Land Acknowledgement Accountability recommendation process.

Next IRSJ Meeting:

Friday, December 1, 9:00am-10:30am

Hybrid meeting location options: In person (SAC Campus, Nealley Library Instruction Room: L-112-1) or Zoom (<https://rscdd-edu.zoom.us/j/88425101161>)

Interested faculty are invited to join the Intersectionality, Race, and Social Justice Advisory Group and may reach out to Steve Bautista or Annie Knight for additional information. Ideally, those interested in joining are personally committed to and invested in DEI and anti-racism work.

---

The purpose of the Intersectionality, Race, and Social Justice Advisory Group is to provide leadership and recommendations on practices, policies and procedures that support Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and anti-racism (DEIA) initiatives. In collaboration with all community stakeholders, this advisory group strives to proactively create and support DEI and anti-racism change impacting faculty.