I. Call to Order

Dr. Rose called the meeting to order at 9:08 a.m.

1. Final Draft Mission Statement – by reviewing submissions and feedback for a revised mission statement at SAC and following a lengthy discussion related to the submissions, two finalist statements were approved for presenting to the campus via an electronic survey:

- Santa Ana College inspires, transforms, and empowers.
- Santa Ana College empowers students and transforms our community through teaching, learning and social justice.

*As a result of the campus-wide survey conducted June 2-6, the revised mission statement is Santa Ana College inspires, transforms, and empowers. On June 29, Dr. Rose modified the mission statement to be Santa Ana College inspires, transforms, and empowers a diverse community of learners, to address the ACCJC Eligibility Requirements (specifically #6) and Standards (specifically Standard 1A).

Additionally, college council will address the vision statement/values in the future to go along with the revised mission statement.

2. Enrollment Management Plan – Carlos Lopez explained the enrollment management plan still has some clean up to complete the draft. Though the academic senate have not yet approved it, they have received it and provided feedback for moving it forward. The Enrollment Management Plan is the guide by which we function going forward in terms of how we schedule classes, address issues including performance based funding; it is a document that changes and not written in stone. Dr. Rose confirmed that college council because of the constituency representatives is the ‘workhorse’ group to review all plans. This item will be brought back to the next meeting.
3. Mid-Term Report – Dr. Jaros reviewed the mid-term draft report dated May 24 and received feedback. She noted she still needed some evidence documents. She also confirmed the approval of the Academic Senate and Classified staff. She explained needed approval of the Actionable Improvement Chart that is now complete and adding the revised mission statement. The commission has implemented a new format asking for an update of the actionable improvement plan. She updated and removed commentary to responses as council members provided more feedback. There is no need to respond to recommendations that were already accepted. Dr. Jaros extended appreciation to professional development workgroup and providing excellent documents. She extended great respect and appreciation of the excellent work of the college research department and Cherylee Kushida for distance education. She also discussed a summary that has to do with the president, annual report data and district budget. She expressed appreciation for Robert Manson for information related to financial aid and compliance with federal regulations. The final document will include all links. Additionally, documents will have to be ADA compliant and Dori Dumon has assisted with that aspect. Dr. Rose noted this study becomes the foundation for the next self-study. A discussion followed regarding focus areas to address in the future. It was moved by Dr. Jones and seconded by Dr. Collins to approve the mid-term report as discussed with feedback. With no other questions, the motion passed.

4. SAC Technology Plan – Dr. Kennedy briefly reviewed the development of the revised SAC Technology Plan and the need for approval. Dr. Lundquist suggested stronger language about new adult education center noting SAC educates from early child to early college, to adult education and everything in between including a bachelor’s degree. After additional feedback, Dr. Rose inquired if council members were comfortable approving it with edits to be made based on feedback. The document is to be dated June 2017. It was moved by Dr. Collins and seconded by Dr. Jones to approve the technology plan with revisions as discussed. The vote passed unanimously.

It is projected that credit enrollment be down by 2% at the end of the year with combined projection of being down 6% with credit and non-credit. Dr. Rose noted that growth is not on the horizon as in the past. HOWEVER, SAC must grow to maintain funding stream, large college designation, enrollment or it will be terrible 2018-19. At the end of this month, RARs will be considered for approval and prioritized. Additionally, Dr. Collins reported on personnel matters including recruitment for replacements of the Facilities Manager and the Executive Secretary position in his office. Dr. Jones extended appreciation to Ray Hicks for serving as the Academic Senate Co-Chair on the Planning and Budget Committee. He is stepping down and Ed Fosmire will serve in that capacity.
